“ To the McCoy family,
I read with sadness of your loss. Please know you have my deepest condolences. Although Alfred is not here to embrace, nothing, not even death, can take away the special memories you've shared together. May the sadness that you feel be comforted by your many cherished memories and the warmth of family and friends. Please remember that you can always lean on your Heavenly Father for support. He is a comforter of all those who mourn. In His Word the Bible, He tells us to throw all our anxiety upon Him, because He cares for us, 1Peter 5:7. Isaiah 41:10. He also tells us of a brighter future when our loved ones will awake from their restful sleep to enjoy life in paradise. John 11:11; John 6:40; Revelation 21:3, 4. Many are finding solace in this promise. I pray that you will also.

“ To the McCoy Family,
I'm so sorry to hear of your loss, I did not know Alfred personally, although I know how difficult times like these can be. I just wanted to share a thought of encouragement. I have found hope in the scriptures especially one found at John 5:28 it speaks of a time when we will all have the opportunity to see our loved ones again, I hope you may find encouragement in this verse.
