“ Carroll will be sadly missed. Bea and Carroll played a very big part in life for along time. They watched and love my oldest on Brandon grow up. Caroll always took his favorite dog "Angel" and Brandon for awalk just about everyday. Then they would return to the house and yes Bea would have a wonderful treat waiting. They cared for me and took care of me for months and month after i was involved in a boating accident. Carroll took me to therapy and my doctor visits and Bea would stay at my house and prepare food. Boy as we all know she did that well. They are both resting in heaven with my dear parents Larry and Betty Stickney...what a happy reunion that must of been! There are endless memories with them that will never fade. R.I.P. All of you...someday we will all be together again. To the family ...your hearts must be heavy but lighten it by knowing they were incredible loved people and made a BIG difference in this world.
