“ Our condolences to Vera, James and Carol. John was a wonderful colleague and friend. A valued team member, he contributed intelligence, ability, and a willingness to help that served as motivation for those around him. If there were a Wall of Honor, he would join it, along with Grover and Beulah, Bill Hall, Anna Briggs, and Bob Smith, all whom were so helpful and kind to the rest of us.

“ Jim and family. So sorry to hear that your Dad passed away. I always looked forward to John's stories when I visited the house. He was really smart and always had a solution for just about anything. Especially when visiting and we did stuff at the house, from motorcycles, fishing to woodworking he always tried to help out. A really wonderful person. I'm really glad to have met him.

“ Carol - sorry to hear about your father's death. While I didn't know him, I know you were always concerned about his health issues. I know you will miss him - but any pain that he was experiencing is now over. Know that you and your family is in my thoughts.

Dear Family,

I was greatly saddened to read of John's passing.

My love and prayers are with each of you.

Are you not living in Claremont any longer? The paper said Canaan. I was surprised.

Hope to hear from you.

With love, Polly, Tom, Dennis and Glenn
