

Mrs. Louise Emma Dubois

September 16, 1919 - February 11, 2014

Williston, VT

Louise Emma Dubois of Williston, VT and formerly of Crescent Lake Road in Acworth, NH died February 11, 2014. Louise was born on September 16, 1919 in Gilsum, NH to parents Leon and Angeline (Secord) Alexander of Gilsum NH. Louise was the eldest of six children. Louise was a dedicated wife to Antonio Dubois for 56 years. They were married 24 of April 1937 in Claremont, New Hampshire where they settled. For many years Tony and Louise ran “the block”, a small apartment complex between Spring and Elm Streets. They also ran Tony Dubois Garage and Texaco station located adjacent to “the block” where Louise could be found pumping gas in her high heels and green Texaco jacket. In 1949 Louise and Tony adopted their son Joseph Antonio Dubois. In 1977 Joseph married Rebecca Towne, they have two daughters, Elizabeth (b.1981) and Ashley (b.1983). Tony and Louise retired permanently to their cottage on Crescent Lake in the 1970s. They spent many years enjoying square dancing, snowmobiling, fishing out on the lake in their motorboat, and watching the sunsets over the lake. Louise remained in that house after being widowed in 1993, later she relocated to Newport, and eventually in 2010 moved to Williston, VT to be closer to Joseph, Rebecca, and Ashley. Louise always led a very devoted life to Her God. She frequently could be heard saying Let Go and Let God, or “sorry I keep Him so busy helping me, He might take some time to get to you.” She and Tony were also very devoted to their siblings and extended families. Louise being the eldest daughter took upon much of the responsibility of caring for and raising her younger siblings. As the families grew older they shared many fun filled adventures with both the Alexander and Dubois families. Louise was always a very busy woman. If she wasn’t cooking soup or working at Sullivan County Nursing Home, she was crocheting. Louise made and sold many dolls, donated scarves for the Special Olympics, and with her sister Liney they made preemie hats and blankets which they donated to the hospital. She crocheted many afghans to keep her family and friends warm over the years. Louise at 94 never lived in a nursing facility because she didn’t want to live with the “old people,” she remained young at heart until her last day. Louise is survived by: son Joseph Dubois wife Rebecca; granddaughters Elizabeth and Ashley; sister Liney Bleau, Keene, NH; sister-in-law Fannie Dubois, Newport NH , sister-in-law Pat Alexander and many nieces and nephews. Pre deceased by: brother, Leon Alexander Jr, sisters Irene Underwood, Lillian Gagne, Theresa Whitney; and many in-laws. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11:00 on Friday at St. Mary's Church, with the Rev. Shawn M. Therrien, pastor, officiating. A reception will follow at the Claremont Senior Center. Friends may call at the Roy Funeral Home, 93 Sullivan Street, Claremont, NH on Thursday evening from 7 - 9pm. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Williston Food Shelf, PO Box 1605, Williston, VT 05495. Arrangements have been entrusted to the Roy Funeral Home and Cremation service.

“ We loved spending time with Louise when she lived at Crescent Lake. She was a very special lady, and we regret losing touch with her when she moved away. We were fortunate to share many delicious meals with her and still use the afghans she made for us. At last she is with "my Tony."

“ I spent many hours as a young tot with my Aunt Louise. We lived in the block and she babysat me while my mom worked. My one memory as a little tot was a kitten she got for me, aparently it wasn't corporating so I decided to flush it down the toilet. She rescued the kitten and I got time out. My aunt and uncle were very good to me and I loved them very much. She always said "I love you Joanne" after every phone call we had. Iwill miss you Aunt Louise wish I could say one more time, "I love you Aunt Louise."
