“ As Peter rests in peace, may your cherished memories comfort you. May our Heavenly Father listen to your prayers and grant you peace. Galatians 1:3. May you never give up your faith and hope for a brighter future when our loved ones are called to awaken from their restful sleep to enjoy life forever in paradise. John 5:28; John 11:11, 21-26; Matthew 5:5. Many are finding solace in this promise. I pray you will also. With deepest condolences.

“ Dear Diane; I wanted you to know that I am thinking of you and your family at this time of loss, and you especially are in my prayers. Love, Kay Hashagen from Genesis Rehab in Baltimore

“ To the Michaud family, sad to read of the passing of your dear loved one. Not familiar with the family, but we all know that the enemy death leaves a pain that seems to linger with us forever. I just want to share an encouraging word to help ease the pain. The Sovereign Lord has promised to remove the pain, sickness and even to do away with death, so that those who are faithful can live the life Almighty God purposed from the beginning.(Revelation 21:4) The hope for those asleep in the memorial tombs will be a reality when Jesus Christ will call and awaken those who have lost their lives in death.(John 5:28&29) Just think of the time when we can welcome those we love to a perfect life on a perfect earth (Psalm 37:29) I certainly hope this will brighten your future.
