

Mr. Richard L. "Dick" Limoges

March 27, 1942 - March 24, 2018

Richard L. "Dick" Limoges, 75 of Claremont, NH died peacefully Saturday (March 24) at the Jack Byrne Center in Lebanon, NH following a period of failing health. He was born in Claremont, NH on March 27, 1942 the son of William and Irene (Lambert) Limoges and had been a lifetime resident. Richard co-owned Limoges Oil & Propane in Claremont, NH initially with his brother Donald and then later with his son Mark. One of Richard's greatest joys of owning the company was helping out his customers, especially the elderly. Richard loved to get to know his customers and he would never turn down an opportunity to speak with them and hear how things were going and talk about their families. Richard was a former Police Commissioner, as well as a member of the Claremont Zoning Board.

Richard was an active member in the community and was a member of many local civic organizations including the Knights of Columbus, Claremont Elks Lodge #879, Claremont Moose Lodge #1201 and the Kiwanis Club. Richard had many passions in life. He enjoyed wood working and the family benefited from his many projects. He was also a gentleman farmer for many years. Richard had a huge heart for all his animals and he kept his barn meticulously clean for the animals which incited many good natured jokes at Richard's expense. He took great pleasure in sharing the fruits of his farming labor with his family. Richard's true passion was spending time with his family. Richard adored his wife of 23 years Colleen "Coco" (Smith) Limoges. Together they loved entertaining friends and family and their home was always the gathering place. Everyone who entered their home felt welcome and special. Richard treasured his children and their spouses. He had three sons, Michael Limoges and his wife, Christine, Easthampton, MA; Mark Limoges and his wife, Tina, Claremont, NH; Matthew Limoges and his wife, Lori, Springfield, VT; a daughter Andrea Wilson and her husband, Jamie, Claremont, NH; and a step daughter Fawna Wilson of Claremont, NH. Some of his favorite times were enjoying the company of his nine grandchildren. As often as he could he would have them with him on the farm. The grandchildren knew Richard as Pepere and he had a very special place for each one of them in his heart They also thought the world of Pepere and he was often the person they turned to when having a problem because of the special relationship he had with them. From their very early ages Richard would teach them how to ride horses, clean the barn (while listening to Willie Nelson) and perform other farm chores including driving the farm tractors. Richard was Pepere to Tyler Limoges and his wife, Estee, Nicholas Limoges, Kayleigh Young and her husband, Christopher, Calvin Limoges and his wife, Danelle, Ryan Limoges, Natalie Wilson, Meghan Wilson and step grandchildren Raven Thibodeau and Jaden Wilson. They will always cherish the memories they had with their Pepere. Richard is survived by three brothers, Donald Limoges and his wife, Marina, Claremont, NH; Norman Limoges and his wife, Marie, Spencer, MA; Raymond Limoges and his wife, Mary, Loudon, NH and several nieces and nephews, He was predeceased by a sister Pauline Veayo and her husband Galen. Funeral Services will be held at 11:00 am on Friday (March 30) at the Roy Funeral Home with the Rev. Shawn M. Therrien, pastor of St. Mary's Parish, officiating. Friends may call at the Roy Funeral Home, 93 Sullivan Street, Claremont, NH on Thursday from 5 – 8 pm. “ The community has lost a truly fine gentleman. I have fond memories of the old days when Dick served on the Zoning Board and I was but a young clerk working at City Hall. As my dad would have called him, Dick was a great wisecracker. I still miss the days of Don and Dick running Limoges Oil Company...

"Those were the days, My Friend, I thought they'd never end...." Rest In Peace, Dick.

“ Going to miss our dear friend. So enjoyed our times together here in Florida and also in NH. Even though not feeling chipper at Thanksgiving they made a complete Thanksgiving dinner and hauled it to our home in Florida while I was having my own medical problems. God Bless you my good friend and I will see you on the other side of the bridge. Enjoyed our dinners on Gulf Coast while reminiscing over our toddies. God Speed Dick. Love you Buddy.

“ My deepest condolences to cousin Dick's family. I remember stopping at the Limoges Oil Company Office while on my bicycle, on my way to the Connecticut River to go fishing. I would visit with Uncle Bill and sometimes I would see cousin Dick there too. Both were always friendly and nice to me. I wish I had gotten to know him better.

“ To Colleen, children, and grandchildren,
" When you speak of him, speak not with tears, for thoughts of him should not be sad. Let memories of the times your shared give you comfort, for his life was rich because of all of you!"
