“ Pam..
I am so sorry to learn of Steven's death. I never met Steven but have known you for decades and know that your loss must be almost unbearable. We also had a child born in 1972 and I can't imagine life without her. A friend once told me 'we are never given a cross that we cannot bare' and I believe that to be true. You are strong and will be support for the rest of your family. Most Sincerely, Jill Edson
